

Research Publications

We have two sets of encyclopedias in the classroom, as well as several other books on travel and general interest geography. You may also find appropriate articles in magazines, atlases, or newspapers in class, in the Library, or at home.

Research Websites

Here are some good links to find info on your country.

Remember to write in YOUR OWN WORDS!

Don't just copy & paste.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Main\_Page

Wikipedia is an online encyclopedia. Type your country's name in the search box at the top-right.

The CIA World FactBook

<https://www.cia.gov/library/publications/the-world-factbook/index.html>

Select the name of your country from the drop-down list at the right of the page.

Country Reports

<http://www.countryreports.org/maps/centralamerica.htm>

Countries of the World by Students of the World

http://www.studentsoftheworld.info/menu\_infopays.html

National Geographic Kids - Countries of the World

<http://kids.nationalgeographic.com/kids/places/find/>

FactMonster - Countries of the World

<http://www.factmonster.com/countries.html>

This should get you started.

Don't forget to add your websites to your Bookmarks and SAVE YOUR WORK before you leave.